As usual a beautiful day. We had meetings all morning, and I had lunch with Sir Bernard Rau, the head of the Indian Delegation. It was a stag affair; I sat between Mendes-France and Nehru of the Indian Embassy in Washington.

This afternoon, I attended conversations in John's office, first with the Italian and later with the Indian del gation.

E. and I took a walk before I went to a large stag dinner given by Floyd Blair and other National City Bank people on the roof of the Bankers Club. I sat between Sosthenes Behn and Luis Machado of Mexico.
